Republican Policy Chief Denies GOP Stalling Kennedy Program

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Styles Bridges, R-N.H., said today Republicans are trying to amend—but not stall — President Kennedy's New Frontier legislative program.

Bridges, who heads the Senate Republican Policy Committee, denied that in demanding additional witnesses and in engaging in lengthy questioning GOP members are using delaying tactics against key Kennedy proposals.

"All we are trying to do is correct some basic weaknesses in the legislation the President has proposed," he said in an interview.

Bridges denied specifically the suggestion by Sen. Paul M. Douglas, D-Ill., that by long questioning of witnesses on the administration's depressed areas bill and by demanding that additional persons testify on minimum wage legislation the Republicans were trying to slow down congressional action.

Instead, Bridges said, the Republicans are working to get a satisfactory "anti-pirating" amendment into the depressed areas bill—one which would bar the use of federal funds to lure industry from one section of the country to another.

In the minimum wage field, he said the Republican objective is to make certain that small, local retailers are not included in legislation that will lift the present $1 an hour minimum in stages to $1.25.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana, who has set a goal of Senate passage of at least one Kennedy priority measure each week, said he hopes the Republicans aren't engaging in any slowdown.

Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., told the Senate Tuesday that Senate Labor subcommittee action on Kennedy's aid to education legislation may have to be postponed until after hearings are completed on the minimum wage bill.

Sen. Pat McNamara, D-Mich., chairman of the subcommittee handling the latter bill, had hoped to conclude work on it this week. But Morse said Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, a member of both subcommittees, had objected to having the hearings go on simultaneously.

Interstate 71 May Be Ready In 1964-65

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The proposed link of Interstate 71 between Columbus and Cincinnati may be ready for use by 1964 or 65, if the expected speed-up in federal aid takes place, Highway Director Everett Preston said today.

Preston made his comments at a special conference with a group of Cincinnati-Columbus legislators. The highway link between the two cities has caused some controversy, because of what some legislators call "the apparent neglect" of the need for the road.

Under existing federal and state fiscal plans, Preston said, the highway won't be completed until 1968.

"We are trying to serve both the Dayton and Cincinnati area at once,' Preston said, "providing them with a Columbus link."

Existing facilities make it possible to have four-lane divided highway most of the way between Columbus-Dayton-Cincinnati.

Department studies indicate that by 1978, the existing Columbus to Dayton, Cincinnati to Dayton highways will be used almost twice as much in proportion to the traffic on Interstate 71 between Cincinnati and Columbus.

Typist Is Fired For Wearing Shoes With Low Heels

NORWICH, Conn. (AP) — A woman employe of the Public Utilities Department is standing on her rights to come to work in low heels.

"This is America. We're living in a democracy," said Judith Elwell Tuesday after she was suspended from her job for three days for defying her boss' edict against informal attire.

Depressed at what he called the sloppy appearance of the department's women employes, Public Utilities Manager Philip L. White last week banned "leotards, bobby socks, knee socks, slacks, loafers, moccasins, ballet slippers and other shoes without heels."

For a few days Mrs. Elwell complied. Then she reappeared in the low heels and, after a warning, she was suspended.

Mrs. Elwell said she was more comfortable in the low heels. "After all, I don't type with my heels," she said.

Appeal Given Nod In Liquor Dispute

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The state lost a round today in an attempt to clear legal barriers to creation of an FBI-type liquor enforcement squad.

The Ohio Supreme Court unanimously denied Personnel Director James T. Welsh a writ of prohibition to prevent an appellate court appeal from his order of last June 3 creating higher than usual classifications for liquor agents.

James B. Burns and 15 other agents challenged the new classifications unsuccessfully in common pleas court and filed notice of appeal. They contended the new jobs were created unlawfully and might bring their dismissal.

Pentagon Asks Conventional Arms Buildup

President Undecided On Increase in U.S. Nuclear Weapons

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy said today the Defense Department has recommended an increase in conventional weapons strength.

The President also told a news conference that the administration has reached no decision on whether there should be any stepup in nuclear weapons capability.

As to the Pentagon recommendation for an increase in conventional weapons power, Kennedy said he will take about two weeks before making any judgment on it.

Kennedy's general belief that the United States needs greater capacity for limited war is already well known, however, as a result of previous statements by him. Indications of the main line of administration thinking on the defense problem have now come also from Secretary of State Dean Rusk.

Rusk said in a statement late Tuesday that "we are determined in cooperation with our allies, to enhance the common defense to assure the security of the free world."

"I have long felt," Rusk continued, "that this will require a strengthening of the non-nuclear aspects of that defense, as well as the maintenance of its nuclear aspects. Our commitments to the common defense are known, as is our determination to back them."

Rusk issued his statement in the midst of controversy over a news report published Monday of a memorandum on defense policy which he submitted to Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara early in February. Rusk called the news report "highly inaccurate.'

Other State Department officials said that what Rusk most strenuously objected to was an element of the report saying that he favored defending the NATO Allies in Europe by conventional rather than nuclear weapons. He was also reported disturbed by a "distortion" of his memorandum to the effect that he would favor use of U.S. troops rather than Allied forces in limited wars which might arise in parts of the world outside Europe.

State Department press officer Lincoln White said Rusk's statement was generally in line with the meaning of the memorandum which Rusk sent McNamara. Other authoritative informants reported that what Rusk recommended was an increase in the ability of the North Atlantic Treaty members to meet a substantial, non-nuclear attack in Europe by conventional means rather than by instant use of nuclear weapons.

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy has designated March as Red Cross Month and urged support for its fund drive.

Ohio Senate Due To Vote Thursday On Controversial Idle Pay Extender

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) —The Ohio Senate, split 20-18 in favor of the Republicans, will take a showdown vote Thursday on emergency aid for the long-time jobless.

Advance indications are that the emergency clause will fail—just as it did in the House last week.

Democratic leaders indicated the six Democratic votes needed to support the emergency clause by a two-thirds vote of the Senate will not be forthcoming.

Democrats, along with AFL-CIO officials, object to what they call "crippling amendments" to the unemployment compensation law which are contained in the bill along with a temporary extension of jobless benefits from 26 to 39 weeks.

The Republican leadership has made the amendments, which tighten up the compensation law considerably from the version adopted by the Democratic-controlled legislature of 1959, the price of the emergency extender to meet the unemployment crisis now facing the state.

Democratic Gov. Michael V. DiSalle told newsmen Tuesday just before a Senate committee reported the emergency bill back to the Senate floor that Ohio unemployment now stands at more than 258,000, not counting an estimated 50,000 persons who have exhausted their benefits and still are out of work. He said that represents 11.5 per cent of the work force.

In addition to restoring the emergency clause which the House knocked out, the Senate Commerce and Labor Committee:

Adopted an amendment which would permit persons who have exhausted their benefits since June 30 last year to collect extended payments. The backward cutoff date adopted by the House in its non-emergency bill was last Oct. 31.

Amended the measure to make all sections of the bill except the benefits extender effective next July 2 instead of immediately.

If Ohio Senate Democrats succeed in blocking emergency action on the GOP-sponsored state benefits extender, Ohioans who have exhausted their benefits still may look to Congress for emergency help through extended benefits.

The federal act, legislative leaders said, apparently is scheduled for a quick trip through Congress and may well be effective ahead of the April 15 effective date anticipated earlier.

As the Ohio bill stands, it contains a "trigger clause" which would make extended benefits available to the long-time unemployed at any time that the state's number of jobless has stood at 6 per cent or more for three months in a row.

Sen. Edward H. Dell, D-Butler, tried in committee Tuesday to cut away all provisions to which Democratic lawmakers object and make the bill a simple, temporary extension of benefits. He was defeated on a strict party-line vote. Gov. DiSalle told newsmen he gladly would sign such a bill, adding:

"They wouldn't have to send a simple extender downstairs to my office. I would be upstairs waiting to sign it as soon as the last vote was cast."

Red Hostility To Kennedy Up

Khrush To Skip First Sessions of U.N.

MOSCOW (AP) — Against a background of mounting Soviet hostility toward the Kennedy administration, Premier Khrushchev has decided to stay away from the start of U. N. General Assembly session next Tuesday and send Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko to head the Soviet delegation.

Moscow radio announced the makeup of the delegation Tuesday night. Khrushchev was not on the list. This doused specuation that Khrushchev would go to U. N. headquarters for the meeting as a prelude to talks with President Kennedy.

Diplomats felt that Khrushchev decided not to attend the assembly—at least at the start—because the time is not yet right for a meeting with the new president, who is still working out his foreign policies.

In addition to Gromyko, Deputy Foreign Minister Arkady Sobolev, former chief Soviet U. N. delegate, will be in the delegation.

An article in the government newspaper Izvestia indicated that as the Kennedy administration comes up with its own policies, they are not to Moscow's liking.

Izvestia said it had sensed hints of a "thorough cleaning of Gen. Eisenhower's Augean stables with the coming of a new boss to the White House."

"Now, toward the end of February," Izvestia went on, "the impression is that Washington has got used to the stink of the uncleaned stables."

In one of the sharpest Soviet attacks on the new administration, it singled out U. S. policy in Asia and Africa and called the policy two-faced. The government organ accused the United States of attempting to show a friendly face toward emerging nations on the two continents while actually working with colonial powers.

Retarded Class Fund Drive Starts, $570 in Hand Now

With $570 in the till and a full-blown fund campaign barely started, it appeared today that Pickaway County is on the verge of having classes for mentally retarded children.

The Pickaway Council for Exceptional Children today opened its public campaign to raise $6,000. The money will be used to pay expenses of a class for a year.

Individual charter memberships in the Pickaway Council for Exceptional Children are being offered throughout the county. It is hoped that 600 persons will join at $10 for a charter membership.

Headquarters for the opening phase of the drive will be adjacent to the First National Bank at 104 E. Main St.

There literature will be available for all who may be interested in the problem of training retarded children. The headquarters will be manned from 9 a. m. to noon today, 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Thursday and 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. Friday and Saturday.

* * *

CHARTER memberships will be available at the headquarters during that time. However, the campaign will continue throughout March. There will be no house-to-house drive.

Organizations and businesses will not be solicited, but individuals throughout the county are urged to join the program by becoming charter members of the council.

There are nearly 20 youngsters of school age in Pickaway County who are not now in school, most of whom would be eligible for training.

The money will go to pay a teacher, transportation costs and materials. A school room has been donated for use at St. Joseph's Parochial School.

To date a total of $570 has been collected in the drive to the $6,000 figure. That money was paid by persons who did not wait for a formal campaign to begin.

Officers and members of the board of trustees of the Pickaway Council for Exceptional Children have special certificates for those who become charter members.

Members of the board also are available as speakers to tell about the proposed class. A call to any of them will take care of speaker needs during the drive.

Members and officers of the board of trustees who are spearheading the campaign are:

THE REV. Floyd Adams, president; the Rev. George Mason, vice president; Lawrence McKenzie, vice president; Ronald Easter, secretary, Mrs. Richard Spires, treasurer, and Mrs. Charles Tomlinson Jr., corresponding secretary.

Feuding Congo Chiefs Seek To Solve Political Problems

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—The feuding political chieftains of the Congo buckled down to solving their own problems today after a United Nations warning to reconcile "or chaos will result."

Anti-Communist leaders in signing a military pact offered an olive branch to the Communist-backed rebel regime of Antoine Gizenga in Stanleyville.

Gizenga was invited to a roundtable conference of Congolese political leaders on the island of Madagascar starting next Monday.

Also invited was Anicet Kashamura, another follower of slain Congolese leader Patrice Lumumba. Kashamura has been running Kivu Province but lately has been reported in jail at Stanleyville.

President Moise Tshombe of secessionist Katanga Province emerged as the dominating figure in the three-way anti-Communist military alliance signed Tuesday in his capital of Elisabethville.

Premier Joseph Ileo represented the central government in Leopoldville. Albert Kalonji signed for the "Mining State" he has proclaimed in southern Kasai.

These moves were announced shortly before U. N. Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold sent a letter to Congo President Joseph Kasavubu warning that the United Nations would soon muster sufficient troops to impose a political solution on the Congo if the Congolese did not work one out alone.

"I am sure that you will agree that it would be idle to expect world opinion to accept that things continue as they have been. Either the will manifested by the world community (through the United Nations) will be respected, or chaos will result," Hammarskjold said.

The agreement for military cooperation reached by Kasavubu's government with Tshombe and Kalonji avoided politics by saying that none of the governments formally recognizes the other.

Although the communique said the pact was made to set up "a common bloc against the danger of U. N. trusteeship, Communist tyranny and a Korean-style war," it carefully avoided naming the rebels as specific targets.

Three More Car Entries Are Reported

Circleville Police yesterday received three more complaints of cars being ransacked here. This makes nine since Sunday.

Gail Waidelich, 250 Cedar Heights Road, told officers a .22 caliber rifle was taken from his car parked on W. Main St.

Ted Prushing, 504 E. Main, reported his car parked on Abernathy Ave. was entered at about 10:30 p. m. Monday. He said he heard a door slam, then saw a person running up the street when he investigated.

Prushing said he found the glove compartment of the auto open, but nothing was missing.

L. H. CALLAHAN JR., E. Main St., told police his parked car was entered. He said several small articles were missing.

Four car entries were reported here during the weekend and two more Monday. Officers said they are pressing their investigation.

Prehistoric Items Found In Nevada

RENO, Nev. (AP) — Archeologists admitted today they have been secretly working for 18 months on one of the most important prehistoric finds in the history of Nevada.

Three Sparks, Nev., men stumbled into one of the relic-rich caves, forcing officials of the Nevada State Museum and the Desert Research Institute of the University of Nevada to acknowledge the project.

The Sparks trio discovered a cave containing a baby's skeleton, wrapped in fibers and animal hide, well-preserved artifacts, and water baskets still capable of holding water.

The trio—Jim and Bob McKinon and Paul Dinan—also found a rare throwing stick about 18 inches long, grooved at the end for holding an arrow or dart point.

Only about 12 of these sticks have been found in the United States and only one other has been found in Nevada. It is estimated more than 2,000 years old.

Richard Shutler Jr. archeologist of the museum and the Desert Research Institute, said the artifacts of the caves also include a "beautiful chert knife," matting, cordage, shell horns and beads. The beads and shell horns have been traced to California prehistoric dwellers, indicating some trading took place.

Artifacts are the products of primitive art. Chert is impure flint-like material.

Little Ohio River Flooding Expected

CINCINNATI (AP)—The rising Ohio River, swollen with rain and melting snow, is expected to crest at or just under flood levels over most of its length, according to the Weather Bureau.

But there are a few spots that may get some trouble. A bureau spokesman noted Tuesday night the river nudged past the 52-foot flood stage at Dam 29 near Ashland, Ky., and was expected to go one foot higher.

Downriver at Dam 50 near Evansville, Ind., the crest next Monday is expected to spill more than four feet over the 34 - foot flood stage.

The spokesman said some lowland areas along the river can expect minor flooding from Parkersburg, W. Va., downriver.

'Peace Corps' To Be Set Up

Young Americans Due To Work Overseas

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy today established a temporary Peace Corps of young Americans to be sent overseas, and sent a special message to Congress calling for creation of such a helping-hand agency on a permanent basis.

He announced the move at his news conference and expressed hope 500 persons will be working in foreign countries by the end of the year.

The White House followed up with a message to Congress recommending the permanent establishment.

The President defined the corps as a pool of trained American men and women sent overseas by the U.S. government or by private organizations and institutions to help foreign countries meet their urgent needs for skilled manpower.

Kennedy said the participants will work without pay, live as their foreign counterparts do and speak the native language.

"The initial reactions to the Peace Corps proposal are convincing proof that we have, in this country, an immense reservoir of such men and women—anxious to sacrifice their energies and time and toil to the cause of world peace and human progress," Kennedy's statement said.

Federal Aid, Sun Cheer Soggy South

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Federal aid and sunshine cheered thousands of flood victims in the water-logged South today, but the big rivers of the area still churned over their banks.

Alabama, one of the hardest-hit sections in a 500-mile band across four Southern states, counted $10 million dollars in damage to public facilities alone and the lower Alabama River was reaching new heights.

The worst was also yet to come along downstream reaches of the Chattahoochee River, which forms the borderline for southern Alabama and Georgia.

Gov. Ernest Vandiver asked President Kennedy to declare flood-stricken sections of Georgia a major disaster area after farmers reported losing crops and livestock and many buildings and homes were damaged.

Alabama and Mississippi flood areas already have been designated eligible for federal disaster relief. Flood victims formed long lines at Hattiesburg, Miss., to apply for emergency clothing and other aid. Tons of surplus food were ordered sent to Montgomery, Ala., still nearly surrounded by water.

Emergency refugee shelters were set up at Selma, Ala. Other downstate areas of Alabama, Georgia and Mississippi prepared for rising waters as the rivers continued carrying off the overflow of a week of torrential downpours.

President Says Antirecession Moves Needed

Commerce Department Reports Still Show Trouble, Chief Feels

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy said today there is not sufficient evidence at hand to indicate an upturn has taken place in the economy.

A reporter told Kennedy at his news conference that some economists have voiced the opinion that "perhaps the recession has reached a rock bottom and that perhaps the economy is on an upturn."

The President replied that he hopes an upturn does take place. But he said the Department of Commerce is releasing statistics "that do not indicate that an upturn is taking place as yet."

Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges recently predicted a rise in the economy within the next 60 days.

Kennedy said there still are many hundreds of thousands of Americans dependent upon unemployment compensation and several millions who can't find work.

"Members of Congress and others with whom I have talked report from various sections of the country that they still face a most serious situation," Kennedy said.

"I think it would be premature to make a judgment that our economy is on the rise, and, therefore, that there is no necessity for action. I don't take that view at all."

In view of this situation, Kennedy said, he thinks all of the antirecession programs he has recommended to Congress are needed.

At the start of the conference, Kennedy made these announcements before opening the session to questions:

Red Berlin Boss Levies Rap at West

BERLIN (AP)—The Soviet Union's commandant in Berlin today accused the Western powers of supporting meetings and demonstrations against the Soviet Union in the divided city.

Maj. Gen. Nikolai F. Zakharov sent the accusation to Maj. Gen. Ralph H. Osborne, the U.S. commandant. It was part of his answer to a protest Osborne made on Feb. 13 against Communist East German police for blocking 40 West German churchmen from attending a service in East Berlin.

The answer—kept secret by the U.S. authorities—was disclosed by the Communist Daily Neues Deutschland.

The Soviet general disclaimed responsibility for the East German police. He repeated the standard Soviet position that the East German satellite state runs its own affairs, without Soviet interference. The Western powers do not recognize the East German regime and hold the Soviets responsible.

5 Airmen Are Killed In Crash of Tanker

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich. (AP)—A loaded Air Force tanker plane smashed in a flaming smear across a busy highway late Tuesday, destroying two buildings and narrowly missing a tavern and a tulip farm home.

The pilot had just veered his stricken ship, loaded with 9,500 gallons of fuel, away from a crowded housing project.

The pilot, Lt. John C. Bibble, 24, Urbana, Ill., and the four other airmen aboard lost their lives.

A housewife, Ruth King, 32, said the four-engine, prop-driven KC97 from nearby Selfridge Air Force base struck "in a great big billow of flame and smoke."

Spring Upturn Seen

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges says that while he can cite no figures to prove his case he believed that "by the opening of spring we will have more confidence and move forward."

Personal Property Returns Are Being Filed Slowly

Mrs. Maxine Radcliff, county auditor's personal property tax deputy, announced today that Pickaway Countians are lagging behind previous years in paying personal property tax.

Mrs. Radcliff said, "Only 456 persons have paid personal property taxes so far. Approximately 2,500 Pickaway Countians must file the tax returns yet," stated the tax deputy.

The dead line for filing these tax returns is April 30. All individuals, partnerships, associations and corporations engaged in business, such as manufacturers, farmers, lawyers, merchants, and others are required to file personal property tax returns with the auditor.

All residents of Pickaway County owning intangible property, regardless of its use, are also required to file returns with the auditor in each county where they own taxable property.

* * *

THE rate of tax varies from locality to locality and is identical with the rate of real estate and public utility property for a given taxing district.

In regard to intangible property, productive investments are taxed at 5 per cent of the income yield; unproductive investments are taxed at 2 mills on each dollar valuation: deposits are taxed 2 mills on the dollar. Moneys, credits and other taxable intangibles are taxed at 3 mills on each dollar valuation.

All personal property tax collected is used for local schools, libraries, health, fire and police services.

Pickaway County Auditor's office reported a total of 2,694 persons filed personal property tax forms last year.

New Petition Is Filed in Lien Lawsuit

Kochheiser Hardware Co., one of the defendants in the tangled case of the Circleville Lumber Co. against Albert Kerns, David and Moses Block, and others, today filed an answer and cross petition in Pickaway County Common Pleas Court.

The hardware firm states that it delivered materials to contractor Albert Kerns for remodeling the Circleville Motors Building, owned by the Blocks, on June 27, 1960, valued at $222.22.

Later the firm obtained a mechanic's lien on the property. Today the firm asks judgement of $222.22 from the Blocks with interest from August 24, 1960, that the lien on the premises be foreclosed and ordered sold, that a priority of liens be established and the proceeds of the sale be applied to payment of the liens.

Circleville Lumber Co. filed a suit against Kerns, the Blocks and others in January, asking $4,507.64 for materials furnished in remodeling of the building. The Blocks in turn filed a cross petition, saying they had paid Kerns for the remodeling work.

Kerns filed also asking that Charles Mumaw Jr. of Circleville Motors be made a party to the suit, and stating that the Blocks and Mumaw owe him money for the job. Kerns said he performed the work contracted for.

President Says

July, there was no net outflow of gold from the United States this week.

Kennedy commented that this signifies that "confidence in the dollar throughout the world is being restored."

2. West Germany's Chancellor Konrad Adenauer will visit Washington April 12-13 at Kennedy's invitation. The President said he is looking forward to meeting Adenauer and having an exchange of views.

3. The President announced he is urging Congress to restore to former President Dwight D. Eisenhower the rank of five-star general. Kennedy called this appropriate because of Eisenhower's outstanding military record and his long public service to the country in peace and war.

Eisenhower resigned from the rank in order to run for president in 1952.

4. Kennedy said he had today signed an executive order creating a Peace Corps of Young Americans who will serve abroad in providing aid to underdeveloped nations. The corps will operate at first on a pilot basis, Kennedy said, but he also is asking Congress to enact legislation which would make the corps a permanent operation.

In response to questions, Kennedy said he shortly hopes to issue an executive order designed to "strengthen employment opportunities in and out of government."

He made that announcement when asked how he feels about a recommendation by the Civil Rights Commission that federal funds be withheld from public colleges and universities that discriminate on grounds of race, religion or national origin.

Kennedy said the new administration's efforts in the civil rights field will be concentrated first in the field of employment. He indicated action may be taken later in the areas of education and housing.

The questions and answers ranged over these additional areas:

WILLIAMS — Kennedy said in his opinion Asst. Secretary of State G. Mennen Williams has "done very well" on his current tour of African nations.

"I am wholly satisfied with his mission," Kennedy said.

A remark by Williams that he favors "Africa for Africans" has touched off criticism in allied capitals and in this country.

Williams has said he was talking of all Africans, whatever their race.

Alluding to that, Kennedy said Williams "made it clear that he was talking of all those who felt that they were Africans whatever their color might be, whatever their race might be. I do not know who else Africa should be for."

EDUCATION — Kennedy said the Constitution clearly prohibits distribution of federal aid for education to private and parochial schools, that Supreme Court decisions have made this very clear. He made that remark when asked why his administration's program does not provide for any aid to such schools.

BUDGET — Kennedy indicated that the still-to-be-made decisions regarding national defense spending will determine whether the budget can be balanced for the fiscal year starting July 1.

He declined to speculate when asked whether the budget might show a deficit of about $1½ billion. The budget Kennedy inherited from the Eisenhower administration for the new fiscal year predicted a surplus.

$30,000 Is Awarded In Truck-Car Crash

CLEVELAND (AP)—A jury in Judge Victor Cohen's Common Pleas Court Tuesday awarded $30,000 to Jacob T. Crews, who claimed injuries resulting from a Kroger Co. tractor-trailer ramming the rear of his car in Medina Dec. 23, 1958.

Crews alleged he had stopped for a traffic light when he was struck. He was pinned inside his car and Glen Hargis, his nephew, was killed. Crews sued for $150,000 for alleged injuries to his heart and brain, plus emotional problems he said resulted from the accident.

Stock Mart Prices Drop, Profits Taken

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market declined in active trading early this afternoon as profits were taken on the latest advance.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was off .80 at 238.10 with industrials down 1.10, rails down .50 and utilities down .40.

The decline was moderate and a number of gainers opposed the general trend. Wall Street was pausing to take a second look at the amazing 1961 market. The mild correction was in the nature of things.

Most oils, coppers, building materials, steels, farm implements, aircrafts, electronics as well as a wide range of selected issues which have made big gains were down as traders cashed profits.

First-hour volume of a million shares compared with 1.18 million Tuesday when the biggest volume in 5½ years was rolled up.

International Business Machines was off about 5, Zenith and Brunswick more than 2 apiece. Texaco was up about a point. International Harvester fell about 2. Down more than a point were Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, Eastman Kodak (ex dividend), and U.S. Gypsum.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was off 1.95 at 660.13.

Corporate bonds were mixed. U. S governments were unchanged to slightly higher.

ELECTRIC CHAIR FOR THE KILLER IS WHAT WE WANT
Have You Seen This Killer?
HE IS NOT A CRAZY MAN HE IS A KILLER

Slayer of Girl Admits Crime Is Revolting

NEW YORK (AP) — Fred J. Thompson, 59, the admitted sex-killer of Edith (Googie) Kiecorius, was behind bars today, meekly waiting for justice to take its course.

"I'll probably get life or the electric chair," detectives quoted the toothless, British-born derelict as saying after his capture on a chicken farm near Toms River, N. J., Tuesday.

"It was the worst crime I have ever known—and I committed it," he said.

The battered body of the 4-year-old blonde girl was found Sunday in the dingy, $8-a-week room Thompson had rented in the Chelsea district of Manhattan.

The nature of the crime and the public indignation which followed its discovery precipitated one of the biggest manhunts in the city's history.

The girl's widowed mother, near hysteria at times, said Thompson should "be destroyed like a mad animal. That way other children will be saved. They should make him suffer like the girl."

At a short hearing before a magistrate today, Thompson was held without bond for the slaying. The case was adjourned until Friday. As he was led away, the ashen-faced man was the target of jeers and verbal abuse from the crowd of 150 which jammed the courtroom.

New Ohio License Tags Go on Sale

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio is profiting $98,000 on personal vanity in the issuance of 1961 motor vehicle tags which go on sale today.

Going into the mails between now and Monday are 98,000 reserved plated for motorists who paid a dollar extra for specific number and, or letter combinations.

All others pay $10.

The plates this year, green and white, can be attached immediately replacing the current blue-on-yellow background tags, and all the state's some 4,250,000 motor vehicles must have them before the month is out.

Cincinnati Prosecutor To Air Stickler Case

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Hamilton County prosecutor has called witnesses for a probe Friday by the grand jury into the financial dealings of Leslie Stickler, Cincinnati attorney. Sickler has been charged in U. S. District Court with fraudulently using the telephone to obtain a loan from a man in Florida. Federal attorneys said Cincinnatians apparently loaned money to Stickler expecting big interest, and the attorney's dealings may have involved millions of dollars.

Booster Club Makes Plans For Banquet

Several points of business were brought up during a meeting of the Circleville Booster Club officers and directors last night at Benny's Restaurant.

The members set April 8 as the tentative date for the CHS combined basketball and wrestling banquet. The annual event will be held at the high school social rooms. It will be a carry-in, although the club plans to buy hams for baking.

The group voted to purchase a pitching machine for the baseball team this season at a cost of about $300. Baseball Coach Richard Fisher was present to give details on the piece of equipment.

In other business officers and directors agreed to start a project of selling the new book "The Waterloo Wonders", the popular story of the famous basketball team which ruled the high school ranks in Ohio in the 1930's. Copies are expected here soon and will go on sale immediately.

Railroad Car's Load of Ether Poses Problem

CONNERSVILLE, Ind. (AP)—Chemical engineers and railroad crews may attempt today the touchy job of raising a derailed tank car without setting off its 10,000-gallon load of ether.

The tanker, one of 13 cars of a Baltimore & Ohio freight train derailed Sunday, was lodged at the bottom of a steep embankment. Fifty families were out of their homes and a grade school at the west of the city was closed because of the danger of explosion.

The 50 families were away from their homes for the third day, most of them quartered with friends.

"They seem to be all right," Simeon Gage, police radio operator, said. "No extreme hardship cases have been reported."

There was no indication how the ether might be disposed of if efforts to set the car back on the track intact are unsuccessful. The Nickel Plate Railroad sent a large crane from Lima, Ohio, to help with the job.

The deepest man has gone in the world's seas is 35,800 feet. This was accomplished in the United States Navy's bathyscaph "Trieste".

Food, Land Plan Offered

A tentative new government "food for peace" plan offers both hope and danger. Surplus U. S. food is to be used as an inducement for land reform programs in South America. The plan is described thusly:

Surplus feed grains and other food will be sold cut - rate to South American governments, but may be distributed only to farmers on new farmsteads. The farmers would use the grain to feed their livestock until they could supply their own needs.

The scope of the program will depend on the Latin governments' willingness to provide these new farmsteads, which would necessitate breaking up big estates.

A danger in the program is that it may be considered unwarranted interference in internal affairs of Latin governments. Some governments may balk at offending big landowners, who are often the governments' strongest supporters. It would be difficult for any country to finance such a redistribution of land.

But surplus food is not a benefit which Washington is obliged to hand out willynilly. It can, if it chooses, sell it only to Buddhists, or to lefthanded beekeepers. There should be some assurance that this program will not, as so much American aid has, merely line the bellies of the prosperous. Tying the program in with feasible land reform might be one way to see that the food goes to those who need it.

In this country, farm leaders fear the program may aggravate the farm surplus problem. George McGovern, director of "Food for Peace", says, 'We expect to relate our overseas distribution to what we are trying to do at home."

Considering the preplexity of the farm problem, he may have more trouble placating the home folk than peddling food south of the border.

Planning Hurts Civilization

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—You know why civilization wears so many people out?

Their chronic fatigue doesn't come from doing things. It comes from the vexation and annoyance of trying to arrange to do something.

Nobody does anything offhand or on the spur of the moment. You have to set it up in advance. It has to be arranged.

The mat that once said "Welcome" is out of style. The new mat says, "Welcome—by appointment only."

You phone somebody in an office, and what happens? They don't connect you. An icy impersonal voice inquires, "Who's calling, please?"

You may be calling only to do him a big personal favor. It makes no difference.

The SYSTEM provides that you must give you name, rank and maybe your Social Security number, then hang fuming on the phone while you are invisibly announced and received or rejected.

You can, of course, fight back. Whenever you get that maddening query, "Who's calling, please?," you can reply in a great hollow voice: "Tell him it is God returning his call—but too busy to wait."

Then slam the receiver hard.

But you can't really beat the SYSTEM today. It has you surrounded.

Try and get the television repairman to fix your set in a hurry. He has a Girl Friday, too, and she says sweetly, "Sorr-ee-ee, he can't come to your home until Thursday evening."

To see a hit Broadway play you have to buy your tickets six months in advance. Who knows whether a man will feel like being entertained in a certain way on a certain date half a year later?

But the "by appointment only" vogue—some of it necessary, but much of it simply snobbery—spreads across more fields every year.

It is "by appointment only" now that you get a haircut, have your dog clipped, play golf on a public course, go bowling, have your teeth filled, or explain your last income tax return.

You don't have to die by appointment, but if your friends want to attend your funeral services they have to arrange to arrive at the appointed hour. If they get to the church 15 minutes late, you'll be gone—and the pastor may be performing a wedding.

There is only one real way of escaping the SYSTEM.

Become a beatnik. As he doesn't plan to do anything much anyway, he doesn't have all the wear and tear of arranging things beforehand. His nerves are calm, unflurried.

A beatnik's only appointment is with futility. And this doesn't require phone calls or advance planning.

Nation of Islam Grows

By George Sokolsky

This country is getting as full of cults as the pomegranate has seeds. During the pro-Lumumba rioting which occured in the United Nations, one of these cults, the Nation of Islam, appeared. This was organized in Detroit in the early 1930's by W. D. Fard, an ex-convict. Fard's leadership was taken over by a Georgia-born Negro named Elijah Poole who changed his name to Elijah Muhammad. According to Poole, Fard was Allah, and Elijah is the "Messenger of Allah." The Nation of Islam claims a membership up to a quarter of a million but as their affairs are secret, it is impossible to verify their numbers.

The objective is to save the Negro from "the wilderness of North America," to take them out of the "slavery imposed on them by the white race." In Harlem, Elijah's followers are often referred to as Africans.

Under Elijah Muhammad, the headquarters of the cult moved from Detroit to Chicago. Altogether there are at least 30 temples in various parts of the United States. There are also affiliated groups. The members are rigidly disciplined by captains who work directly under Elijah Muhammad.

The membership consists of men and women who are segregated, the women wearing a grotesque white uniform. The men are called the Fruit of Islam; the women, Muslim Girls Training. Both groups are under military discipline. Their objective is to hate "the white devil." These people are being conditioned and trained for the "War of Armageddon" when the blacks — as they refer to themselves — will kill the whites.

The Nation of Islam maintains two so-called universities; one in Detroit; the other in Chicago. These are for children between four and the upper teens. Public officials have had difficulties with them. In addition, each temple runs several businesses, which members are expected to patronize.

In February, the Nation of Islam has a convention in Chicago which is arranged like an Oriental bazaar. February is usually the start of the Feast of Ramadan among Moslems. Muhammad and his captains deliver long, vindictive speeches against the whites and against the Government of the United States.

Although Elijah pretends to support the beliefs and doctrines of Islam, a study of his preachments must produce the view that he is not adequately learned in the Koran or any interpretations thereupon. The founders of this cult were not Moslems; they were American Negroes. However, they attached themselves to Islam, calling themselves first Allah's Temple of Islam and the Muslin Cult of Islam, and now settling down to be the Nation of Islam.

The organizer, W. D. Fard, who has disappeared and who the votaries of this sect believe is Allah, that is, God, was a peddler in Detroit after serving a three years period in San Quentin Penitetiary for violating the narcotics law. He went by many names and preached violence.

At first Fard preached the Bible but very soon abandoned and ridiculed the Testament and preached racial hatred instead. On November 21, 1932, Detroit was shocked by a frightful story of a human sacrifice. Robert Harris induced his roomer, John Smith, to present himself as a human sacrifice so that he might become the "Savior of the world." At the appointed time and place, Harris plunged a knife into Smith's heart. Harris was arrested and adjudged insane. Fard disappeared in May 1933.

Elijah Poole, variously known as Gulan Bogans, Gulam Bogans, and Mohammed Rassouli, took over. He was born in 1897 near Sandersville, Georgia, one of 13 children of Wali and Marie Poole. His parents have been slaves. Poole finished four grades of school and left home at the age of 16. In 1932, he took his wife and children to Detroit where he found work. It was there that he met and became a disciple of W. D. Fard. In 1934, Poole, now Elijah Muhammad, moved to Chicago where he established Temple No. 2, which is the central office of the Nation of Islam.

Raymond Sharrieff is the Supreme Captain of the Fruit of Islam and son-in-law of Elijah Muhammad. He is a very powerful and fearless person. Malcolm X. Little runs the New York Temple and therefore leads an enormous flock. It is suspected that Little seeks to take over the Nation of Islam. Four of Elijah's six sons are officials of the Nation of Islam. Each temple is controlled by a minister appointed by Elijah.

Practice Jump

TACOMA, Wash. (AP) — Police Judge DeWitt Rowland says he found his first parachute jump like "stepping out of a bathtub. . . except for the landing."

Rowland, 60 years old and a pilot since 1928, made the jump from 2,500 feet "for practice", in case of an emergency.

He landed with a bump and roll to the cheers of younger friends in the Rainier Parachute Club.

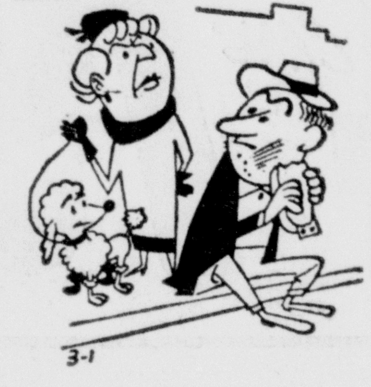
Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

JOHN STRALEY tells of a hobo who was sitting on a curbstone in a fashionable neighborhood, munching contentedly on a homemade sandwich. Along came a supercilious lady with an equally supercilious poodle. Both sniffed disdainfully—but the poodle picked up interest when he spotted the sandwich.



"Shall I throw the doggie a little, ma'am?" asked the hobo.

When the lady gave her condescending consent, the hobo seized the poodle by the collar and sent it sailing over a nearby hedge. "Thank you, ma'am," he said. "If the doggie comes back, I'll be happy to throw him a little more."

Letters To The Editor

To the Editor of the Herald:

"I feel embarrassed before the world. Embarrassed for Circleville and all its citizens, including myself.

"In the new March issue of Reader's Digest is an article, "The Movies' Sickening Exploitation of Sex", by Don Wharton. Among other places, Circleville, Ohio, is cited as an illustration of this exploitation through our local movies.

The subjects mentioned are torrid love, infidelity, mental and physical cruelty and prostitution.

"Our indictment is: Young people fill our movies. When will we wake up?

"The only answer we can make is: Action.

"Here are a few suggestions:

"1. Put on an earnest campaign for decency through already organized groups. This could be instituted by the ministry or some high-principled club.

"2. Organize a Public League for Decency, open to all organizations and individuals.

"3. Put on a campaign of values for our citizens, especially youth, pointing out the actual rewards of such principles as truth, loyalty, patriotism, purity, citizenship, etc. This could be a basic, positive approach.

"Through the columns of The Herald, could we not hear other suggestions on this subject, from the many decent, law-abiding citizens of our community?"

The Business World

By Sam Dawson

NEW YORK (AP) — The attempt to bring interest rates down is reaching out into a field that millions of Americans know about —mortgages.

Real estate men and builders say there already has been a slight drop in such financing costs in some sections. They credit this to a drop in demand for such funds, thus making a greater supply of investment money available. Builders also hail President Kennedy's executive order lowering interest rates on home mortgages insured by the Federal Housing Administration.

The administration is now closing in from another direction and aiming for a drop in rates on conventional, or unguaranteed, mortgages.

To this end Treasury Secretary Douglas Dillon has asked the savings and loan industry, especially on the West Coast where rates are highest, to lower dividends paid to savers. This would make possible like cuts in mortgage interest rates such firms charge. They handle about 40 per cent of the total of mortgages.

How effective this appeal will be is yet to be seen. Many hold that a drop couldn't be made much before summer because such rates are set for some time ahead.

Consumers also are watching to see if the administration's drive on interest rates will lower the costs of instalment buying. But in financial circles it is held that little change is likely. Time payment rates are slow to respond to the ups or down in the general money market and pay little attention to long-term rates.

Taxpayers, however, might see some roundabout, and doubtless slight, relief if the administration is successful in its drive to lower long-term interest costs. This would come of these inetrest charges fall enough to make much difference in the carrying costs of borrowings by states and communities to finance their many and growing needs.

Businessmen are more likely to see changes, if the drive succeeds. Cheaper loans in the long-term market could lead many corporations to reconsider borrowing to finance their activities, including construction and modernization plans.

The administration's goal in lowering borrowing charges is to spur such business activity, to encourage more home building, as part of its over-all drive to get the economy out of its stalemate and forging ahead again.

Making FHA borrowing cheaper and urging a cut in the costs of conventional mortgages is only one of the methods Washington is trying.

The Federal Reserve Board is helping by changing its U. S. securities purchasing polices. It now will buy long-term securities, if it chooses — somehting ti gave up in 1951, except for a brief emergency when the market became disorderly.

By buying long-term bonds, the Fed would help boost their price. And that reduces the yield these fixed-interest paying securities return on the amount of cash spent in buying them.

And if it buys fewer short-term Treasury bills, the Fed will raise their yields and make them attractive for those who might otherwise send their dollars overseas for higher returns. Such seagoing dollars often are used to buy gold from the U. S. Treasury. And the Treasury doesn't want any more of that sale if it can help it.

Financial circles are sharply divided as to whether the administration moves will work, singularly or in toto.

Akron Cagers Suspended by High School

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Three South High School basketball players were suspended today and five other youths have been arrested in connection with the beating of a Garfield High School student.

Eugene Di Donato, 17, president of the Garfield Student Council suffered a broken nose and bruises when he was beaten by five youths last Thursday night. He was attacked in parking lot at South High School following a class AA basketball tournament game between Garfield and St. Vincent High School.

Fred Weber, executive director of athletics in Akron public schools, said he suspended the basketball players because they saw the attack but made no attempt to stop it.

Players suspended were David Evans, an all - city star; Roland Gray, another starter, and Jerome Higgins, a reserve.

"Those three boys had prestige among the group," Weber said. "They could easily have stopped the attack if they so desired. We expect leadership from our student athletes, something the boys didn't give us."

South High School, which drew a bye in the first round was scheduled to make its tournament debut last night against Wasdworth.

Police said they were told some South High School boys were beaten following a football game between Garfield and South high schools last fall.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

String Them Along, Dearie!

DEAR ABBY: I don't know if this is a coincidence or not, but lately my husband has been making up excuses to go out after supper.

I don't like to be left alone, and I can't go anywhere because we have a baby, so I call up my girl friend to ask her to come over and keep me company. Whenever I call her and my husband is gone, she isn't home either. When my husband is home, so is she. What do you make of it?

SUSPICIOUS

DEAR SUSPICIOUS: If you want to hang this couple on circumstantial evidence, just give them both a little more rope.

DEAR ABBY: Our daughter is 19 years of age and working. She recently complained that when we serve wine or mixed drinks at home (usually only when we have guests) we either do not offer her any, or else her father says, "You don't care for any, do you?" Do you think she could wait a year or two longer? We do.

D. S.

DEAR D. S.: Today's 19-year-old deserves the dignity of adult treatment. I, too, would prefer that she "wait." But in her own home she should be given the chance to make her own decision.

DEAR ABBY: I am 26, married and have a daughter. When I was 16 I had never dated, which made me feel unwanted and unpopular. I was never close to my mother. I found a way to be "popular." My mother had told me that sex before marriage was wrong, but when I asked her why, she said, "Because I said so." There were never any explanations.

I think if I had known WHY sex should wait until after marriage, it would have changed my life. My husband doesn't respect me because I gave in to him before marriage. He said at the time it would prove I loved him, but now he calls me a tramp and says he will never trust me. I have never been unfaithful to him and never will be.

I am saving your columns for my daughter, Abby. Mothers can tell daughters things, but coming from you it means more. I want more than anything else in the world to see my daughter walk down the aisle in white.

NEVER DID

Yes, Abby will answer your letter personally if you write to ABBY, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif, and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Flapper Era Is Recalled In New Paris Fashions

PARIS (AP)—Most of the women who will wear them got their first look at the latest fashions from Paris today.

If they agree with enthusiastic buyers this season, Paris can rack up another popular success.

The designers are out to please with a breezy, easy silhouette—easy to wear, easy on the eyes, but definitely not easy to copy. Men are supposed to like short skirts, so they should be happy, too.

Reports from the end of January openings often mentioned the flapper or 1920s trend, particularly in the top-of-the-season collections of Dior and Ricci. But pictures from the openings, released today for publication, prove that the designers are not merely copying a worn-out style, but interpreting it in a way that looks new and modern. Resemblance to the 1920s comes in short skirts, often showing a glimpse of the knees, and in a waistless or long, loose-waisted look.

Pierre Cardin cut his cloth looser than anyone else for his off-the-figure sarongs. Lanvin's Castillo bucked the general trend for low-flaring skirts with his down-tapering "ace of diamonds" silhouette.

One thing all the designers agree on is a fitted hipline, and with one or two minor exceptions, a flat-chested look which also harks back to flapper fashions.

The breezy, wind-blown air that all the designers tried for is carried out in pleated and flared short skirts with blousy semi-fitted tops, and in such thin, airy materials as silk crepes, chiffons and organzas.

The fresh, pale colors add to it, too: Pinks, peach, aprocit, mint and lime green, absinthe and daffodil yellow, cherry red, light blues and white, with some black and white combinations and pale beige, gray and navy for day wear.

The designers can take polka dots or leave them alone. Patou and Balmain sprinkled in a few giant spots. Floral printed chiffons are so pretty they seldom failed to draw applause. One of the most attractive ideas is floral chiffon dresses with matching unlined coats, highly transparent and really light as a breeze.

Ohio Senate Poised for Showdown Vote

Otherwise, the legislative front remained relatively quiet as lawmakers awaited the outcome of the unemployment compensation battle.

The Senate passed, 36-2, and sent to the House a bill to permit school principals, as well as superintendents, to suspend unruly pupils up to 10 days in serious cases.

The House passed and sent to the Senate two bills dealing with northeastern Ohio lakes. Both are emergency measures and would be effective as soon as passed by the Senate and signed by the governor.

One would permit commissioners of Mahoning and Trumbull counties to participate in a federal aid project for a dam on the west branch of the Mahoning River to create a flood control lake. The $14-million project would create a lake lying largely in Portage County.

Emergency action is necessary to approve the project before federal appropriations expire, sponsors explained. Of the total cost, Mahoning County would pay $2.7 million and Trumbull County $1.7 million. The federal government would pay the rest.

The other bill applies to Pymatuning Lake that extends into both Ohio and Pennsylvania. It would permit use of six-horsepower outboard motors all over the lake instead of only south of the causeway, sponsors said.

Tuesday's sessions saw 28 new bills introduced along with a couple of major resolutions. One resolution calls on Congress to increase import duties on goods made abroad by subsidiaries of U.S. firms. The other would amend the Ohio constitution to give tax exemption to properties used exclusively for education and for related property owned by educational institutions.

Among the new bills were measures to:

Increase the strength of the Ohio Highway Patrol from 700 to 1,000 men, a move advocated by the administration of Gov. Michael V. DiSalle.

Stamp the word "disabled" into auto license plates issued to disabled persons.

Require candidates for appeals court judgeships to have prior service on common pleas or probate benches.

Require a candidate for sheriff to be between the ages of 25 and 65 and have a high school diploma.

Change the title of the administrative officer of a local school district from "executive head" to "superintendent."

Require that 50 per cent of a city income tax paid by a nonresident be paid to the school district in which the non-resident lives.

More Court Troubles Face Cincinnatian

CINCINNATI (AP) — Leslie Stickler, Cincinnati attorney, faces more court trouble. A suit was filed against him Monday in Common Pleas Court seeking $27,600 on overdue notes.

Isadore Greenland of Cincinnati filed the suit.

Stickler, 37, is free on bond in federal court on a charge of wrongly obtaining a loan by telephone from a man in Florida. A bankruptcy court is studying his business dealings along with the Internal Revenue Service and the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Tarrytown, N. Y., is located near Sunnyside, the home of Washington Irving. The town was given its name by housewives of the countryside because of "the inveterate propensity of their husbands to linger about the village tavern on market days," according to Irving.

Slam Planned

CAPE CANAVERL, Fla (AP)—Several companies have begun design studies for a nuclear-powered global range rocket called SLAM, capable of hitting targets anywhere in the world from mobile U. S. launching sites. SLAM, not expected to be ready for several years, would carry multiple hydrogen warheads at supersonic speed. It would be able to maneuver in space to avoid enemy defense measures and could approach targets from several different altitudes and directions.

59 Ohio Municipalities Now Levy Income Tax

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Fifty-nine Ohio municipalities, including 45 cities and 14 villages, now are levying an income tax.

In the last six months, four cities (Hamilton, Kenton, Orrville and Salem) and one village (West-Carrolton) adopted income tax ordinances for the first time. Sixteen cities and four villages extended for at least two more years ordinances which had terminal date of Dec. 31, 1960.

In 23 of the 59 municipalities, the tax rate is 1 per cent of income, and it is less than 1 per cent in the other 36.

Youths Turn From Rockets To Big Bombs

CLEVELAND (AP)—A 17-year-old rocket enthusiast was sadder but wiser today after learning that the friends he thought had interested in rocketry actually were in business building bombs —BIG bombs.

Juvenile Bureau detectives pieced the story together Tuesday while investigating a weekend explosion in which a 13-year-old boy was badly burned on the hand.

It seems the rocketry enthusiast, a student at John Marshall High School on Cleveland's West Side, had been sending regularly to suppliers in Wisconsin and Pennsylvania for fuel for his rockets. Last year the youth, whose name was not given out, interested some friends in the subject, and they too sent for chemicals.

But instead of aiming for the stars they became occupied in the more earthly pursuit of making firecrackers and bombs, detectives reported. The youths started marketing their products shortly before last July 4.

Officers found bombs as powerful as hand grenades, encased in one inch copper tubing.

The Kurds, one of the oldest peoples in the world, live in the mountains and valleys where Iran, Iraq and Turkey meet.

Akron Pilot Building Plane In Home Attic

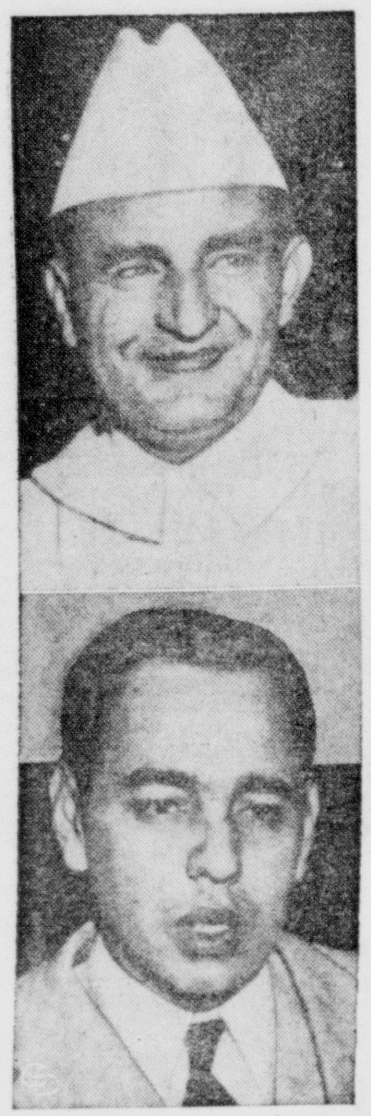
AKRON, Ohio (AP) — George Choi, an engineer for the Magnavox Corp. at Ft. Wayne, Ind., is building his own airplane.

His workshop is the attic of his parents' home, where he spends most of his time while here on weekends.

Choi, 29, an experienced pilot, started his project last fall and hopes to have it completed in another six months. He expects the plane to cost him about $2,200 in addition to his labor, compared with the $14,000 which such a craft sells for at retail.

The plane will be 18 feet long, carry two persons had have a cruising speed of 160 miles an hour.

Choi hauls his materials through a big attic window which he installed for this purpose. The completed body, wings and other sections of the plane will be lowered through the window to the ground, where the craft will be assembled, he said.



THE KING IS DEAD—Prince Moulay Hassan (lower), 33, was catapulted to the throne when his father, King Mohammed V (above), 51, died of heart failure following what had been expected to be a minor nasal operation in Rabat, Morocco. The prince became King Hassan II.

Booth Is Building

DENVER (AP) — The Colorado Supreme Court has ruled that a telephone booth is a building. A man had appealed his conviction on a charge of breaking into the coin box of a booth.

This couldn't be burglary, he argued, because a telephone booth isn't a bulding. The court's opinion said: "A building is a structure which has the capacity to contain man or animals or habitation or shelter."

Candidates for Space

Built-in Failures Train Astronauts

Editors Note—Will the first man to go soaring into space be able to see the stars? Virgil Grissom doesn't think so. One of the three U. S. astronauts tabbed for final preparations for manned flight, Grissom himself may soon be the man to settle the question—and many others. Second of three articles on the space pioneers.

By HOWARD BENEDICT

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —Astronaut Virgil Ivan Grissom sat tensely in a mock spaceship, watching a myriad of dials and gauges, listening to information crackling in his earphones and frequently moving a finger to a switch or lever.

"141 seconds—capsule separated," barked the voice in the earphones. "290 seconds—you're at 100,000 feet, coming down. 42,000 feet, drogue parachute open. You are at 10,000 feet, main chute deployed. 948 seconds, capsule impacted.'

Grissom, 34, garbed in a Project Mercury space suit, was flying a ground-based space mission which simulated everything that will happen, so far as instruments go, on a manned flight expected within two or three months.

The Air Force captain may be the pilot on that historic first flight. He is one of the three men now undergoing final training for the daring mission. The others are John H. Glenn Jr. and Alan B. Shepard Jr.

"I'd like to be the first like all the rest of them," Grissom told newsmen after the simulated flight was over. "But the most important thing is to get it done and get it done right. So I think all of us want the best qualified man to go first regardless of who he is."

The statement is typical of Grissom. In replying to reporters' questions, his answers always are short and direct. Thus he complements the voluble Glenn and the exuberant, wise-cracking Shepard.

The three space pilots each will average five or six flights a week in the simulator between now and the time a Redstone missile thunders away from the Cape with a manned capsule on its nose.

"The idea is to acquaint us as much as possible with all systems of the capsule," Grissom explained. "The simulator contains every instrument which is in the actual spacecraft.

"The flights are not constant repetition. On any one rehearsal the engineers might introduce three or four unexpected failures or emergencies which we must learn to cope with. By the time one of us takes a rocket ride, we'll be ready for almost any emergency."

He explained these built-in "failures" consist mostly of certain equipment malfunctions. The astronaut is geared to shift to a backup system or operate faulty equipment manually in case of trouble during flight.

Grissom, whom the other astronauts call "Gus," is no stranger when it comes to testing new flight vehicles. As a crack test pilot, he has broken in many new planes, logging 3,400 hours of flying time, 2,500 in jets. He flew 100 missions as an F86 fighter pilot in Korea, winning the Distinguished Flying Cross and an Air Medal with one cluster.

Grissom is a native of Mitchell, Ind., and a 1950 graduate of Purdue University, where he earned a degree in mechanical engineering. He entered the Air Force during World War II and afterward decided to make a career of the service. He married the former Betty Moore of Mitchell. They have two sons, Scott, 11 and Mark, 7.

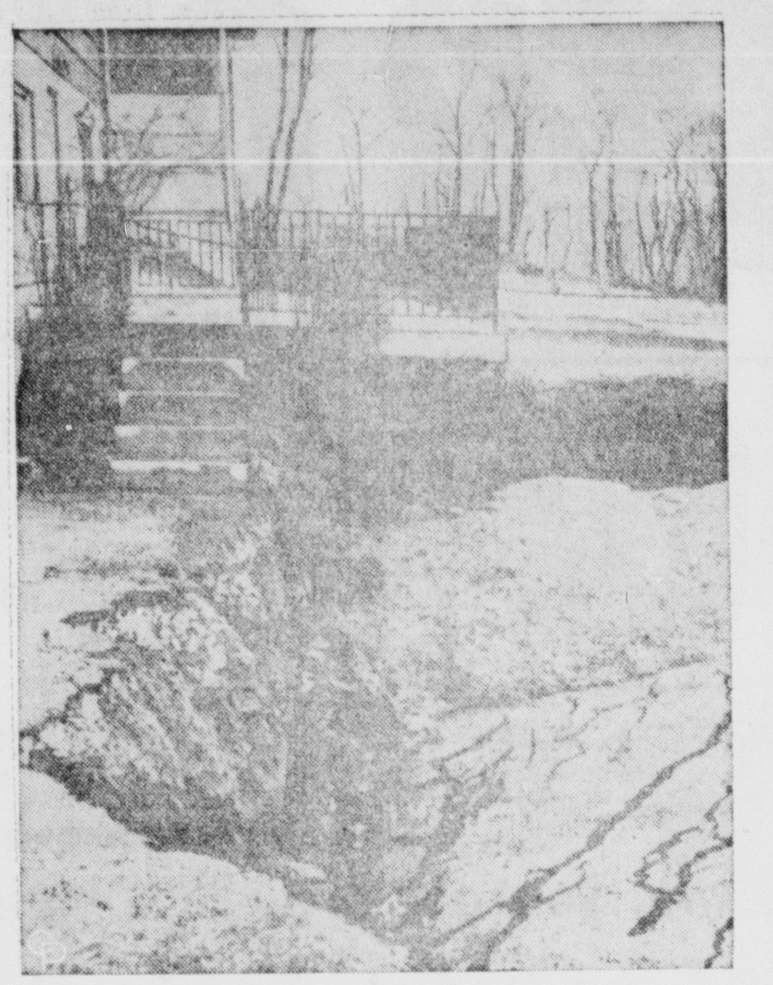
Why did he volunteer for manned space flight? "My career has been in the service of my country," he once replied "and here is another opportunity to serve.'

Insured Joblessness Climbs to New High

WASHINGTON (AP)—State insured unemployment has climbed to a new high for the second week in a row.

The Labor Departments Bureau of Employment Security said Monday state insured unemployment was up 32,000 for the week ended Feb. 11.

This brought the total to 3,390,600 and represented 8.4 per cent of the total employed, compared with 8.3 the previous week.



DROP IN AND SEE US—BUT BE CAREFUL—When the Herman Schwartz family of Cynwyd, Pa., invite friends to "drop over sometime," it could be quite a drop. It's 12 feet off the porch. A crack in the rock wall of a quarry opened fissures in the earth, which have widened six inches daily, and earth has been sinking 12 inches daily in the area. Some homes have been evacuated and industries shut down, but no one knows when the sinking will stop, or how to stop it.

Royal Hunters Bag Sacred Tiger, Rhino

MEGHAULI, Nepal (AP)—The goddess of the jungle was propitiated today by the blood of a tiger and a rhinoceros shot on a hunt arranged for Queen Elizabeth II Monday.

Prince Philip's personal treasurer, Rear Adm. Christopher Bonham-Carter, shot a tigress. Nepalese smeared its blood on leaves and grass and spread them around the jungle. This is the traditional offering to the goddess of the jungle for killing one of her beasts.

A rhino was killed by Lord Home, British foreign secretary. Nepalese beaters and elephant drivers rushed up with bottles to catch some of its blood. Spread on the surface of a river, this blood is considered a holy tribute to an ancestor.

The rhino has a sacred significance in Nepal. Only King Mahendra or his guests are allowed to kill one.

The two animals were killed on an elaborate hunt. About 300 elephants drove the game into a ring for shooting from the backs of special howdah elephants.

Behind Queen Elizabeth and King Mahendra was a Nepal army elephant with men armed with submachine guns as a bodyguard. There was another elephant with an army radio. Nearby was an elephant carrying an Indian army medical team prepared to administer blood transfusions.

Circling around behind the hunters and spectators was a bar elephant, with a man from Calcutta's leading hotel serving beer and soft drinks.

U.S. Woman Diplomat Is Assigned to Ceylon

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy today chose Frances E. Willis, a career diplomat, to be ambassador to Ceylon. She now is envoy to Norway.

Miss Wllis will succeed Bernard Gufler in Ceylon. Gufler recently was named ambassador to Finland.

Man Just Has a Yen To Be Government Man

CHICAGO (AP) — Vernon R. Chumbley just wants to be a government man, that's all. FBI agents, who arrested the 67-year old man in a Chicago hotel last week, said Chumbley has spent most of the last 45 years impersonating federal officers or serving in prison for doing so. Monday Chumbley waived a hearing before a U.S. Commissioner and was ordered removed to Dayton, Ohio, where he is charged with impersonating a federal attorney.

AFL-CIO To Boost Its Dues To Pick Up Lost Revenue

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—The AFL-CIO is tapping its members for an extra $2.2 million to counter a deficit caused by a combination of bad luck and bad work.

The bad luck is the unemployment situation. In five years the AFL-CIO has lost a million members, many of them made jobless in the 1958 recession and the current one with consequent dues payment loss.

The bad work comes from a lack of successful organizing. The federation's unions have lost either their technique or zeal or both in enlisting new members.

These are the reasons behind a decision made Monday by the 29-member AFL-CIO Executive Council, high command of the labor union federation, to levy a special assessment on the organization's 12.5 million members.

The special dues payment will be three cents a month per member on top of the regular five cents a month dues payment. This makes a total of eight cents a month payable by each affiliated union on each of its members.

This is a temporary expedient to meet a financial crisis. AFL-CIO leaders said privately that when the federation's convention convenes in December they expect to propose, and get, a permanent two-cent hike in monthly per capita dues.

All this underlines the fact clearly shown in the 10-day winter meeting of AFL-CIO chiefs, now nearing a close, that union labor's main organization is currently wobbly both in word and deed.

Pronouncements from the AFL-CIO leaders have largely dealt with the bread and butter wage and job security matters that worry the average worker.

This is partly due to the changing American scene—the fact that the era of manual labor is fast disappearing and that the day has dawned for the clerical workers more highly skilled and less susceptible to becoming union members.

The labor leaders are aware of this change but as yet haven't decided on a successful formula to handle it.

Driver of Death Car Gets Fine, Sentence

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Herman C. Miller, 36, said by police to have been driver of a car which hit and killed Mrs. Pearl Parker, 38, on Feb. 10, was fined $100 and sentenced to three days in jail on a drunken driving charge Tuesday. Mrs. Parker, a widow, and her escort were struck while crossing a street, but police said they were not within the crosswalk.

Student Harassment Drives Off Teacher

LYONS, Mich. (A:) — Student pranks forced Wilfrid E. Barton to quit his teaching job at Lyons-Muir High School.

Barton, 50, told school officials he "couldn't take it anymore." So he packed up his belongings and left for New Orleans and his family. He has a science degree from Tulane and a master's from Harvard.

In disclosing Barton's resignation, School Supt. Carl H. Anderson said Monday students complained Barton worked them too hard. Anderson said a small group harassed the teacher with telephone calls, pranks and threats.

Damage Not Permanent

- Glandular Fever
- Physicals
- Diagnose First

Q. To what degree does a plane noise affect hearing?

A. In one study, a considerable number of student pilots experienced temporary hearing loss. However, complete recovery occurred following a few day's freedom from aircraft noise.

Q. Will you please discuss mononucleosis?

A. Mononucleosis ("glandular fever") is an infectious disease probably caused by a virus. It occurs most often in people up to age thirty or so. Symptoms vary but in the typical case the victim feels tired and all washed out, runs a slight fever, and develops swollen lymph glands in the neck. The disorder lasts for one to several weeks or longer, depending on severity. Rest is about all that can be done by way of treatment.

Q. Is cancer of the prostate common?

A. Prostatic cancer is one of the most common forms of cancer in men over 60. A thorough physical examination, including a rectal examination, is the way to discover this kind of cancer.

Q. My heels are very scaly and my hands and hair very dry. Would a change in diet help?

A. Probably not. But wouldn't it be best to consult a doctor? Having diagnosed the condition he could then prescribe whatever is necessary by way of treatment with more assurance of success. Otherwise, it's just a shot in the dark.

Note to "measles": In 1958, 552 deaths were attributed to the disease compared to 255 deaths caused by polio. Doctors are now working with an experimental preventive measles vaccine. When available, the new product will be added to our extensive stock of biologicals.

Prescriptions called for promptly and delivered quickly.

The World Today

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON (AP)—There is one basic similarity and two basic differences between the expressed views of Secretary of State Dean Rusk and his famous predecessor, the late Secretary of State John Foster Dulles.

It may have seemed new when Rusk, after a three-hour session with the Senate's Foreign Relations Committee Tuesday, issued a statement on his views about defense.

Actually, he was only echoing what President Kennedy said months ago in the 1960 campaign and what Dulles had said early in the Eisenhower administration.

Rusk foresaw the possibility of two kinds of war: the all-out nuclear kind and the limited war on the ground where both sides might tangle but both wanted to stop short of all-out.

Therefore, he called for building up both this country's nuclear striking force and its convention forces, such as ground troops.

This is exactly what Kennedy told the American Legion in Miami last October he would try to do if elected President.

Six years earlier—in the April, 1954, issue of Foreign Affairs quarterly magazine—Dulles said: "Massive atomic and thermonuclear retaliation is not the kind of power which could most usefully be evoked under all circumstances. To deter aggression it is important to have the flexibility and facilities which make various responses available.

"The free world must have the means for responding effectively on a selective basis when it chooses. It must not put itself in the position where the only response open to it is general war."

So much for the similarity between the two secretaries. Their differences are more noticeable.

Dulles often acted like a man who was feeding himself verbal pep pills. While his policy was generally defensive, there were times when he said confidently he could see the Soviets backing up under Western pressure.

On Feb. 24, 1955 he said the West had forced Soviet policies to fail and compelled the Russians to devise new ones. At other times he said he could not see where Soviet policies had changed.

At one time he could see the Soviets in a "bad way" and the "tide of history" turning. But there were other times when he displayed an impressive respect for Soviet strength.

So far Rusk has avoided any belittlement of the Russians or prophecies. He has been playing cautious since he took office in January.

Up till now the most notable difference between Rusk and Dulles has been in their salesmanship.

Dulles was the flamboyant, high-pressure type. Rusk goes in for the soft sell.

Dulles talked in scare terms, like "massive retaliation," which he never tried, and "agonizing reappraisal" of American relations with allies, which he didn't make; and treading on the "brink of war," which he carefully avoided.

Rusk, anxious if possible to establish as part of the Kennedy policy a new and friendlier relationship with the Kremlin, has pitched his few public statements so far in a low key.

VS. U.S. — John Prather (above), 86-year-old Otero County, N.M., rancher, is swinging in Round 2 against the government, this time for refusing to pay tax on the $140,349 the government offered—and he rejected—for his land on a missile range. Back in 1959 Prather won fame for standing off federal officials with a rifle.

POP WAS YANKEE STAR—Two sons of Charley Keller, former star outfielder of the New York Yankees, arrive at St. Petersburg, Fla., for early spring training with the farm clubs. The two, Donald (left), a third baseman, and Charley, an outfielder, have been assigned to the Fargo, N.D., team.

Ashville, Walnut Prep for District

Ashville's Broncos, Pickaway champions, stampede into the Central District Class A Tournament Friday at Granville. They are seeded third.

The Broncos will do battle with Licking Valley at 8:30 p. m. in the spacious Fieldhouse at Denison University. Saturday night the talented Tigers of Walnut travel to Granville for a meeting with Madison South. This game starts at 7.

Walnut earned a berth by finishing second in the Pickaway tournament.

Coach Russ Gregg will have his Broncos chomping at the bit by Friday. Paul Reiss will do likewise with his Bengals.

* * *

ASHVILLE finished with a flourish in the tourney finals here Friday and can be counted on to show the same fire at Granville. The Broncos will take a 15-4 record into the battle, compared to a 9-11 slate held by Licking Valley.

Coach Gregg will rely heavily on such aces as Tom Rathburn, Dick Hollenback and Jim Gregg. Gregg inspired the Broncs Friday with his 19 points after being sick earlier in the week with the measles.

Perhaps another find for Ashville is sophomore Sonny Roof who came into the championship game as a replacement to score 12 important points. Co-Captain Paul Frase is another stalwart for the Greggmen with his steady rebounding and scoring ability.

Although Licking Valley has lost 11 games, several of the defeats have been to Class AA teams. The squad was edged by Licking Heights in the Licking County Tournament finals. Licking Heights is the top seeded team in the bracket.

Coach Reiss will have his fine combination of Tom Harber and Bill Hoover to throw against powerful Madison South, winner of the Madison County Tournament.

Madison South's record is 18-2, but Walnut can be justly proud of its 15-5 showing.

* * *

COACH Reiss will be able to find additional strength in outside specialists Larry Leist and Duane Sheets and the powerful rebounding of Clarence (Beef) Gray.

If Ashville and Walnut both win, the two Pickaway County teams would be scheduled to meet March 8. Local fans would like nothing better than to see this happen.

Black Earns Top Place in B Tourney

Jack Black wrapped up the Class B portion of the Sweepstakes bowling tournament during the weekend at Prairie Lanes.

Black finished with a 752 total for four games. He delivered games of 211, 164, 224 and 153.

Taking second place was Bob Lay on a 691, with games of 172, 164, 172 and 183. Third place went to Ervin Smith on a 157-145-173-200--675.

Finishing in fourth spot was Bill Betts with a 672 total. Owen Fullen was fifth at 653, Wendell Emerine sixth at 637, Jim Dancy seventh at 622 and Howard Betts eighth at 653.

* * *

CLASS A competition in the tournament was won several days by Bob Wood. Bowlers were divided into two brackets, one with averages of 161 and higher and the other with averages 160 and below.

The top winners in both classes were awarded trophies and cash prizes.

Ortega Is Tagged 'Fighter of Month'

NEW YORK (AP) — Gaspar Ortega's nontitle upset victory over welterweight champion Benny (Kid) Paret of Cuba last Saturday earned the Mexican "fighter of the month" honors from Ring magazine.

Aggressive Gaspar also regained a berth in the welterweight division's top ten in the monthly Ring ratings released today. Ortega was rated seventh his month. He takes the place of Denny Moyer of Portland, Ore., who has grown to a middleweight. Moyer was ranked 10th in the heavier division.

NCAA, NIT Lists Start To Fill Up

Rhode Island, Colorado State Get Bids to Postseason Tourneys

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Rhode Island, a one-time national basketball power that has suffered through ten lean years, is the latest qualifier for the National Collegiate basketball tournament and the lists for the two big postseason affairs are filling rapidly.

The Rhode Island Rams became the ninth qualifier for the 24-team NCAA tournament when they beat Massachusetts 83-73 Tuesday night and clinched the Yankee Conference championship. That gave them an 8-1 conference record. Maine, 99-80 winner over New Hampshire, finished with 7-3 and perennial champion Connecticut has 6-3.

The 12-team National Invitation Tournament also has nine in the fold and shortly before Rhody's victory received a qualified acceptance from Colorado State University. But since that implied conceding the Skyline Conference title and its automatic NCAA bid to Utah, you'd have to say the tournaments are even.

In other major basketball developments Kansas, ineligible for postseason competition, kept alive its chances of beating out Kansas State for the Big Eight title, Morehead took the Ohio Valley Conference lead and a long step toward a NCAA bid; two NCAA qualifiers, Marquette and St. Joseph's (Pa.) won and NIT-bound Temple was upset by Penn State.

Kansas walloped last-place Oklahoma 81-56 by controlling the rebounds although tall Wayne Hightower was limited to 10 points—his season low.

Morehead (9-2) clobbered Eastern Kentucky (8-3) 90-73 to break a tie for the Ohio Valley lead. They clash again Saturday. If the result should be reversed, they'd wind up in a three-way tie with Western Kentucky, which has finished its league season at 9-3.

Marquette, recently named for a NCAA at-large berth, just lasted to beat a stubborn Drake team 74-72 after leadng by 17 points with five minutes to go.

St. Joseph's, the Middle Atlantic Conference university division champ, had a 76-74 squeaker against Albright, the northern college division champions. Billy Hoy's last-second basket gave the Hawks their 12th straight victory.

Temple, trailing at half time, rallied and the lead changed four times before Earl Huffman put Penn State ahead to stay. Portland strengthened its claim for an NCAA at-large berth by again beating Gonzaga 81-63.

Bernardi Pockets PGA Golf Purse

DUNEDIN, Fla. (AP) — Sam Bernardi came in with a modest two-under-par 70 but still had enough edge to break the standing PGA National Golf Club course record and win the $10,000 club championship.

Bernardi, of Winnetka, Ill., kept the pressure on all the way during the 72-hole match.

He fired rounds of 67-70-67-70 for a total of 274, four strokes under the previous record of 278 fired this month by Paul Runyan who won the PGA Seniors title.

The victory Tuesday gave Bernardi first prize money totaling $1,000.

Only four strokes behind was Ballard Beasley of Orlando, who fired a five-under-par 67 in the final round for a total of 278.

Schoendienst Tries To Land Berth with St. Louis Cards

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Quietly and without fanfare, Red Schoendienst trots out to the infield every day and continues the conditioning process he hopes will restore the agile movements that made him one of the greatest second basemen in National League history.

Sparingly used during 1960, Schoendienst was cut by the Milwaukee Braves at the end of the season and now is trying to garb a berth with the St. Louis Cardinals—the team with which he started his illustrious major league career in 1945.

Sixteen years later, apparently fully recovered from the tuberculosis attack that struck in 1958, he's back on the same spot. He has no contract—has about the same chance to make the Cards as the rawest rookie.

Manager Solly Hemus, looking for added infield insurance, is giving the 38-year-old switch hitter every opportunity. Tuesday the old redhead, who set two outstanding NL fielding records, performed with skill and ease.

"I'm sure Red will make it," said Hemus of the flashy fielding Germantown, Ill., native who holds the record for most chances accepted without an error, 320, and most consecutive errorless games by a second baseman, 57.

"And," continued Hemus, "we'll be better off having him as an infield handyman."

Warren Spahn, the ace lefthander of the Milwaukee Braves' pitching staff who'll be 40 when the season opens, is having trouble with his left knee, a chronic ailment.

"It's stiff right now," said the southpaw who is only 12 victories shy of the 300-win circle. "This isn't half as bad as last year, though," he smiled. "Then it used to swell up half again its normal size."

At the Los Angeles Angels camp, Eli Grba twisted his left knee while pitching batting practice. The Chicago Cubs utility infielder, Jim McKnight, was sent to a physician for examination of his chest and a sinus condition.

Off the playing field, four clubs cut their list of holdouts with Kansas City signing pitcher Ray Herbert, their final holdout, for a reported increase of $1,500 to $17.500. Herbert won 14, lost 15 for the last-place A's last year.

Shortstop Lus Aparicio of the Chicago White Sox, who hit .277 and stole 51 bases last season, signed a contract for a substantial raise to about $40,000.

Infielder Tony Roig also agreed to terms with the Sox. First baseman Joe Adcock came into the Milwaukee fold and Detroit outfielder Charley Maxwell ($26,000) put his name on the dotted line.

Coleman Sets High Goal for Self, Redlegs

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—Big Gordie Coleman, sophomore first baseman for the Cincinnati Reds, is so much more confident than last year at this time he's even set some high goals for himself.

"Yes," he said Tuesday, "I hope to hit at least 20 homers, bat .300 and drive in 80 runs."

That's a tall order for the husky youth, but on his past record the chances are he might achieve one of his aims—the big average.

Coleman hit at a .300-plus clip every season in the minors but his first. His best season, with the 1959 Mobile team of the Southern Association, produced a .353 average, 30 homers and 110 RBI.

He put in half a season with Cincinnati last season after being brought up from Seattle, and wound up with a .271 average, 6 homers and 34 RBI for 72 games.

There still seems a question whether he can handle first base defensively, although Coleman says there's no reason for doubt.

He said his manager at Seattle, Dick Sisler, last season improved his fielding.

"Dick was patient but firm with me," he said. "He was quick to detect when I was pressing at the plate and after I was charged with two errors in the opening game he advised me to quit trying to be cute with the glove.

"I did this and my fielding, which I knew bordered on the butcher side, promptly improved."

No. 1 Team Wins First Tourney Test

CINCINNATI (AP)— Cincinnati Elder, undefeated this season and picked to head the Class AA basketball teams in Ohio for the third straight week, had little difficulty Tuesday night defeating Cincinnati Roger Bacon, 84-48.

The acton came in the first round of the district tournament.

Temple Says He Can Help Indian Tribe

TUCSON (AP)—If he keeps his health, second baseman Johnny Temple figures he can help the Cleveland Indians this season.

Temple didn't have his health last year. He spent more than 50 games on the bench.

But he figures he put the time to good advantage. He studied every pitcher in the league, and figures he learned plenty.

Temple broke an ankle last May that caused him continual trouble. The leg went in a cast in September that didn't come off until shortly before Christmas.

"If you play with fire long enough, you are bound to get burned," Temple said. "I'd played eight major league seasons without an injury. I guess the law of averages caught up with me."

Temple broke in with Cincinnati in 1952. He played virtually every game from the time he became a regular in 1954 until he came to Cleveland last year in a deal that sent pitcher Cal McLish, infielder Billy Martin and first baseman Gordon Coleman to Cincinnati.

The American League was strange to him then, "Every pitcher looked like Walter Johnson," he grinned. "They were all strangers. But they aren't any more.

"I'm 31 years old and I'm starting my 10th major league season, but I honestly feel like a young kid. Let me stay healthy, and give me a few breaks, and I think I can be of help."

The coming baseball season will mark the 17th straight for the Carolina League. It will have a split season of 140 games.

Lucas, Havlicek Named All-Big 10

CHICAGO (AP) — Ohio State's Jerry Lucas and Purdue's Terry Dischinger, a couple of hotshots who have been taking turns smashing conference scoring records, and Indiana's Walt Bellamy have been named to the Associated Press All-Big Ten basketball team for a second straight year.

The Olympic trio was joined by John Havlicek of Ohio State and Don Nelson of Iowa on the first team selected by AP writers in the Big Ten area.

Lucas, who several weeks ago set a conference scoring record of 48 points which was broken by Dischinger's 52-point spree last Saturday, was a unanimous choice, along with the Purdue star and Havlicek.

Havlicek, who at 6-5 is the smallest member of the exceptionally rangy team, moved up from last year's third team. Nelson vaulted to the top from the honorable mention ranks. The team is made up of juniors except for Bellamy, a 6-10½ senior and the tallest man on the squad.

Larry Siegfried and Mel Nowell, two other members of the talented Ohio State team which is regarded as one of the greatest in Big Ten history, missed making the first team by an eyelash.

Behind Siegfried and Nowell there was a sharp voting drop in the second team, which also included Dave Downey of Illinois, John Tidwell of Michigan and Bob Griggas of Minnesota.

Making the third team were Tom Bolyard, Indiana; Dick Hall, Michigan State; Ralph Wells, Northwestern; Tom Hughbanks, Wisconsin, and Tom McGrann, Minnesota.

The honorable mention list includes Ohio State's other starter, Richie Hoyt.

The first team of Lucas, Dischinger, Bellamy, Nelson and Havlicek leaves little to be desired. The squad averages 6-7 in height, is defensively sound and has tremendous scoring and rebounding ability.

Together, this combination averages 106 points and grabs off 64 rebounds a game.

Fullmer Records Unusually Low Pulse

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Gene Fullmer, getting ready for his middleweight title defense against Ray Robinson, has set a mark for other fighters in training to shoot at—an abnormally low pulse of 48.

The Utah basher passed his prefight medical examination, and doctors said Fullmer's stamina is something to behold. But the 48 pulse is the lowest ever recorded, they said, from an able-bodied and ready champion.

In contrast, Sugar Ray's pulse was 64 Tuesday when the medicos looked him over. His blood pressure was 120 over 74, Fullmer's 104 over 68.

Fullmer worked out in secret Tuesday. He plans to taper off now for Saturday night's bout, his fourth against the one-time pride of Harlem. Fullmer is to do light boxing today and wind sprints Thursday.

Views on TV-Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—An ambitious experiment occupied the NBC channels for an hour Tuesday night with ".F.K. Report No. 1."

The program was supposed to be an intimate study of President Kennedy, his family and associates, as well as an analysis of the first 40 days of his administration. It turned out to be neither of these things.

The first part was devoted to a series of fascinating still photographs of Kennedys—all of them previously published—shown with a musical accompaniment and to a sketchy biographical narrative full of familiar facts and laced with rich, beautiful but often meaningless prose.

(Commentator Frank McGee intoned impressively at one point: "The produce of toughness and unity is—oy.")

Abruptly, the tempo and approach changed. The program became argumentative discussion of pending legislation by four congressional leaders. Then came another discussion session, with NBC's White House correspondents talking in generalities. For instance, one commented that Mr. Kennedy "likes being president; he makes an interesting president."

Finally, there were some more still pictures, but these were new, undistinguished and added little to the uneven whole.

Obviously, NBC's news department was striving to give a novel gloss to an old idea. The tricky presentation of the still pictures was provocative. But unfortunately there was not enough good material to sustain an hour's show.

Recommended tonight: "Malibu Run," NBC 7:30-8:30 (EST)—revised version of "The Aquanauts"; Perry Como Show, NBC, 9-10—with guests anet Blair, Mike Nichols and Elaine May.

Movies Go Big in Hong Kong As TV Fails To Mushroom

HONG KONG (AP)—You'd have to go far to find better film fans than the citizens of Hong Kong.

Movie business is so good that television can't hurt it. This may be the only place in the world that TV hasn't been a success.

After five years of TV, there are still only 5,000 sets among Hong Kong's 3 million population.

Factors holding back TV include:

1. Cost. The average citizen is too poor to afford a TV set. Even those who can buy one object to the system. All TV is transmitted by wire, and subscribers must pay a monthly fee of about $2.50.

2. Programming. Hong Kong's sole channel broadcasts only four or five hours daily, relying on old American series and ancient Chinese films.

3. Language. Only a tiny segment of the population speaks English. Dubbing is too expensive, and it is difficult to read Chinese subtitles on the small screen. Even the old Chinese movies have to be dubbed. They are mostly in Mandarin Chinese, while Cantonese is the principal tongue in Hong Kong.

The average citizen goes to the movies 20 times a year, compared with less than 14 in the United States. That keeps Hong Kong's 65 theaters busy, and competition is hot among the world's film suppliers.

American films can be popular, but they have to fight for the market. Local fans are star-conscious. If a Hollywood film has no names, it has to be sold on other merits — story, spectacle, color. The Chinese especially like color.

A thriving local industry competes with the American product. There are several studios, including a new one built by Run Run Shaw, a colorful film magnate who also has studios in Singapore and 130 theaters throughout Southeast Asia. He makes 40 films a year in Hong Kong.

Red China also provides competition. Hong Kong has been importing movies made by the Communists, most of them versions of Chinese operas, an ancient art form loved by the local population. Ostensibly, there is no propaganda content, but many of the operas carry an antiwar theme. And very often the rich man is the villain.

The censor keeps a sharp eye on violence in all films. This can mean wholesale cuts in some of the Hollywood product and banning of a few.

Ohio Lutheran League Plans Home for Elderly

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Lutheran Welfare League of Central Ohio says its planned Lutheran Senior City, a one - floor building to be situated on an 18-acre tract near St. Mary of the Springs College here, would house 287 elderly persons. The league said it expects to apply to the Federal Housing Administration this month for a loan to build the $2 million facility.

Inge Debates Tax Claims

U.S. Says Boxer Owes Half-Million

NEW YORK (AP)—Is ex-world heavyweight champion Ingemar Johansson engaged in a "liberal profession?"

Johansson apparently thinks so and indications today were that he might use the rule to avoid paying the United States more than a half-million dollars in income taxes.

The government disagrees, and Tuesday took action to tie up Ingo's purse in his third title fight with Floyd Patterson in Miami Beach on March 13.

Johansson's argument is that he is a resident of Switzerland and is employed as a business agent for a Swiss corporation called Scanart, S. A.

He says neither he nor Scanart owes taxes because of a covenant between the United States and Switzerland which provides tax exemption for income-producing activities not involving permanent trade or business.

The Internal Revenue Service claims Johansson owes the government $598,181.92 in personal income tax for his two title fights with Patterson here in 1959 and 1960.

In twin court suits Tuesday, here and in Miami, the government obtained orders from two federal judges restraining Johansson from transferring any money outside the country. Hearings are scheduled for March 2 in Miami and March 7 here.

An Internal Revenue Service spokesman explained the "liberal profession" rule as follows:

If a Swiss corporation does business in the United States getting income from labor or services in a liberal profession, and the person providing services is temporarily present in the United States not more than 183 days of the year, and is a bona fide Swiss resident and an employe of the Swiss corporation, then there would be no U. S. tax on the earnings.

The source said, however, he could not clarify the definition of a "liberal profession."

In Palm Beach, Fla., where he is training, Johansson said, "I'm not fighting to earn money for the United States. I'm fighting to earn for me, personally. Everything will be O.K. I don't think they will hold up my purse."

William D. Fugazy, president of Feature Sports, Inc., promoter of the fight, said that the action would have no effect on the bout.

5 Ohio College Quints End Season Play

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Five Ohio college basketball teams finished their season Tuesday night, but only two of them managed to go out on a winnng foot.

Baldwin - Wallace scored 21 points in the first eight minutes of the second half to outdistance Adrian, Mich., and go on to an 89-70 victory. The Yellow Jackets wound up the year with an 11-15 record.

Central State got the other success as the Marauders edged Cedarville 72-70. Central posted a 7-17 mark for the year and the defeat ended the Cedarville season at the .500 mark—12 and 12.

Wooster put the final touches on Heidelberg's cage season with a 90-71 triumph over the Princes. The game was the last regular Ohio Conference battle. Wooster finished with a 9-3 loop mark, Heidelberg 5-7 and with an overall record of 8-13. Wooster meets Akron in the semifinals of the post-season Ohio Conference tournament Friday in Akron.

Steubenville, which still has one game remaining, crushed Wilberforce 101-46 to finish the season for the Bulldogs (7-14). The Barons piled up a 60-14 halftime lead and the first team sat out the entire second half.

In the only other game, Washington & Jefferson defeated Western Reserve 53-44 to keep up its hopes of winning the Presidents' Conference crown. The Pennsylvanians are 9-3 in the loop to league-leading Case Tech's 8-2.

Lake Central Air Service Enters Capital

WASHINGTON (AP)—Lake Central Airlines, Indianapolis, Ind., inaugurated service to the nation's capital today.

Gwin Hicks, president, said that with its extension to Washington and Baltimore, Lake Central has doubled its size and climbed from the rank of 12th among the 13 local service airlines to second or third place in terms of passengers carried and of revenue.

Lake Central flew civic leaders, newsmen and travel agents from Indiana, Ohio, West Virginia and Maryland here Tuesday for a reception.

Afterward American Airlines, the nation's largest domestic trunk operator, was host to Lake Central and its guests at a buffet supper. Most of the cities on Lake Central's new route formerly were served by American.

"American pioneered the route we are taking over, and we are proud to replace its service with ours," Hicks said.

Initially, Lake Central is providing three flights a day over the new route. Two of these are DC3 operation between Cincinnati, Portsmouth, Ohio, Parkersburg, W. Va. - Marietta, Ohio, Clarksburg-Fairmont, W. Va., Elkins, W. Va., Washington and Baltimore. The third flight, with a larger Convair airplane, serves Cincinnati, Parkersburg, Elkins, Washington and Baltimore.

The company also plans to start service May 1 between Columbus, Ohio, and Washington through Zanesville, Ohio, and Wheeling and Morgantown, W. Va., with at least two round trips a day.
